This highly practical session will enable subject leaders and EY practitioners to explore how an effective environment, carefully planned and organised, promotes a broad range of learning opportunities for children. The session will cover the key principles of how to establish continuous provision, indoors and outdoors and will have an in depth look at establishing a rich environment which enables the children to explore, observe and find out about people, places, technology and the environment ~ guiding them to make sense of their physical world and community. With the added opportunity to explore the Interactive Environment ~ this will be a highly informative session for EY practitioners and Subject Leaders alike.	9.30am - 12.00am	£65.00 (exc.
